Executive Summary

The Contract Management & Legal Oversight program provides a comprehensive framework for effectively managing contracts throughout their lifecycle, from drafting and negotiation to execution and enforcement. It equips participants with the legal and practical knowledge required to ensure contractual compliance and minimize organizational risk. The program emphasizes a proactive and structured approach to contract governance, focusing on clear terms, risk allocation, and regulatory compliance. Participants will gain practical insights into drafting robust agreements, managing obligations, and resolving disputes efficiently. Through real-world case studies and applied learning, the course enables professionals to strengthen contract management practices, enhance legal oversight, and support informed decision-making.
