Executive Summary

Effective public finance management and budget oversight are essential for ensuring fiscal discipline, transparency, and accountability within government institutions. This executive program provides participants with a comprehensive understanding of modern public financial management frameworks, strategic budgeting practices, and oversight mechanisms used in the public sector. Participants will explore how governments plan, allocate, and monitor financial resources to support national priorities and sustainable development goals. The program integrates global best practices in financial governance, performance-based budgeting, and audit systems to strengthen institutional financial control. Through practical exercises and policy case studies, participants will gain the tools required to enhance financial accountability and improve the effectiveness of public spending.
